CLUBDOM

LINDIN'S PICTURE CHOSEN

The members of the department of art of the Nineteenth Century club will purchase the painting, "Sunset," by Lindin, for the club. The picture having been the choice of the club members who voted upon it and was also the choice of the local authorities on art.

Lindin is a member of the colony of Woodstock painters, of New York. He is of Swedish extraction, though an American, and will have some of his work in the coming Swedish exhibition. Members of the club and others who saw the painting are very much pleased that "Sunset" was the choice.

SACRED CONCERT GIVEN IN HONOR OF DELGATES

As a prelude to the third annual convention of the Tennessee Federation of Music clubs, the delegates who had reached the city on Sunday evening were complimented with a sacred concert at the Idlewild Presbyterian church. The beautiful program, which was rendered by members of the Idlewild Presbyterian and the St. John's M. E. church choirs, was arranged by Mr. Paul Stalla, organist of the Idlewild church, and Miss Elizabeth Mosby, chairman of the program committee.

Will Attend Convention.

Mr. M. Jaffe, has gone to New York city to represent the Memphis district, Zionist Organization of America, to attend the extraordinary convention that gathered in that city on May 8.

The Memphis district is in receipt of a wire from Sir Auckland Geddes, representing the British community in the United States, acknowledging receipt of a message forwarded him, with expressions of profound appreciation for his government's endorsement of the Balfour declaration, at the San Remo conference where Palestine becomes the home of the Jews.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

CONSTANTINOPLE. — An attempt was made last night on the life of Damad Ferid Paasha, the grand vizier, at his home. Three shots were fired at him, none of which, however, took effect.

ROME. — By a royal decree the price of newspapers, beginning Monday, is raised from 2 cents to 4 cents. The action is due to the increased cost of print paper.

LONDON. — A peace treaty has been concluded between Soviet Russia and the republic of Georgia, according to a wireless message from Moscow. The treaty provides that Russia shall recognize the independence of Georgia and undertake not to interfere with Georgia's internal affairs.

NEW YORK. — All Presbyterian missionaries who were in Guatemala during the recent revolution are safe, according to messages received here yesterday.

CAIRO. — A bomb was thrown at Hussein Darwiche, the minister of works, as he was motoring homeward from his office Saturday evening. The bomb struck the gasoline tank of the motor car, slightly injuring the chauffeur. The minister, however, was unhurt.

NEW YORK. — Three persons were burned to death and one other probably died as the result of a fire in an East Side tenement house yesterday. The fire, the origin of which is unknown, started in a hallway on the ground floor.

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica. — Julia Acosta yesterday was inaugurated as president of the republic of Costa Rica. The diplomatic representatives of Salvador, Nicaragua and Honduras were present at the ceremony.

PITTSBURGH. — Seven organizers for iron and steel workers were arrested at Duquesne yesterday when they attempted to hold an open-air meeting under the joint auspices of the American Civil Liberties union and the national committee of iron and steel workers, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

GREENVILLE, S. C. — Fire yesterday damaged the Southern Railway's trestle over the Catawba river to such an extent that traffic over the main line of the road will be suspended for at least 24 hours, officials of the road stated last night. Trains will be detoured via Rock Hill and Columbia to Spartanburg.

CUMBERLAND, Md. — E. Carter, New York, juvenile lead in the musical comedy "See Saw," was killed yesterday when his automobile ran into a bank near Grantsville. Carter had started for Philadelphia to join his wife, Marilyn Miller, star of the Ziegfeld Follies.

NEW YORK. — Funeral services for Mrs. Samuel Gompers, wife of the president of the American Federation of Labor, were held here yesterday. President Wilson, cabinet members and other high government officials sent floral tributes.

PASADENA, Cal. — Joseph T. Talbot, formerly vice-president of the National City bank of New York, died at his home here. He came here for his health two years ago. He is survived by a widow here and by two brothers and a sister in Grenada, Miss.

He was 54 years old.
